PROJECT #6: Responses to Communication Situations

NOTES and DUE DATES

- The overall value of Project #6 is 10%.
- Deliverables for Project #6 are:
 - Attend the movie shown in class on Thursday, November 13th and Tuesday, November 18th. By vote of the class, the movie will be Wall Street.
 - Submit an essay of at least 1000 words via eLearning in the "Project 6: Responses to Communication Situations " assignment area by 11:59pm on Thursday, November 20th.

OVERVIEW

When watching the movie, take note of situations in which written or oral communication is present. "Oral communication" in this sense means, for the most part, presentations, speeches, and other types of arguments.

Select three different communication situations and

- describe the situation
 - If an instance of written communication, describe the type of document used and how that is (or is not) appropriate to the situation.
 - If an instance of oral communication, describe the parties involved and how they are (or are not) appealing to ethos (ethics/credibility), logos (logic), and pathos (emotion)
